Company Profile 2023

Overview

Human Impact, a member of Cornerstone International Group (<http://www.cornerstone-group.com/>), provides high-end consulting services and human resources solutions, addressing the needs of companies ranging from multinational corporations to small-scale businesses seeking to expand or enrich their operations. With Human Impact, you gain the multi-dimensional advantage of our in-depth experience, comprehensive global services, and high-quality professionalism.

Human Impact specializes in three major fields:

1

Worldwide Employment

Human Impact provides two types of employment services:

- (a) Employment of local Israeli employees for non-Israeli companies without a local Israeli entity;
- (b) Employment of foreign non-Israeli employees in other countries for companies without a local entity in the same country.

Human Impact provides end-to-end employment solutions according to each state's laws and regulations and according to the local benchmark.

2

HR Consulting Services and Outsourcing Solutions<sup>4</sup>

Human Impact Consulting Services specializes in the following areas:

Human Resources: HR Management services, Recruitment services, and Organizational Changes consulting

M&A and PMI: Planning process prior to M&A and facilitating the Post Merger Integration (PMI) in Israel.

Global Recruitment and HR Services

Human Impact is active all over the globe and has already recruited hundreds of professionals and executives worldwide and across industries. Our primary expertise is with Hi-tech and IT industries, Life Science and HLS.

While the current state of your business may demand the specialized focus of one of these areas, Human Impact has the vast experience and capability to consider multiple perspectives, thus ensuring you a comprehensive and effective outcome.

Cornerstone International Group (<http://www.cornerstone-group.com/>) is a worldwide network of independently owned, like-minded member firms located in the world's foremost business centers. Members of The Cornerstone International Group Network have elected representative officers and directors to lead the member organization. Best of Both Worlds—a consortium and network of boutique search firms, we believe that this approach offers the greatest potential return: local knowledge of the market where you need the talent, access to local and global talent databases, skilled specialists in every discipline, a consultancy that will deliver the latest knowledge and tools.
